

Normative Instruction nº 01, on the date of February 24, 2012

The following information is about credits in complementary activities for Masters and Doctoral Degrees of the Postgraduate Program in Movement Sciences.

Article 1 - Masters and Doctoral students of the Postgraduate Program in Movement Sciences should meet, respectively, the minimum of 04 and 08 credits in complementary activities.

Article 2 - The credits in complementary activities will be counted from the date of enrollment.

Article 3 - The attribution of credits in complementary activities will consider research, teaching, laboratory and / or field activities and other activities.

I - The following activities related to research will be considered: participation in scientific events in the country (0.1 credit per event); participation in scientific events abroad (0.2 credit per event); abstracts presented and published in scientific events in the country (1st author = 0.3 credit and co-author = 0.15 credit per abstract); abstracts presented and published in scientific events abroad (1st author = 0.6 credit and co-author = 0.3 credit per abstract); submission of manuscript in journals (Qualis A1 to B3) or book chapter (1st author = 1 credit and co-author = 0.5 credit per manuscript / book chapter); publication of manuscript in journal (Qualis A1 to B1) or book (1st author = 2 credits and co-author = 1 credit per manuscript / book chapter); publication of manuscript in journals (Qualis B2 and B3) or book chapter (1st author = 1 credit and co-author = 0.75 credit per manuscript / book chapter).

II – The following teaching activities will be considered: teaching experience in accordance with UNESP Resolution nº 4 of 01/22/97 (2 credits); Classes for graduation and / or seminars (minimum 8 hours = 0.5 credit).

III – Laboratory and / or field activities (up to 1 credit) will include at least two of the following activities: participation in laboratory meetings; participation in study groups; internships in other laboratories; participation in other research projects; participation in a community service project (extension).

IV – The following activities will also be considered (up to 0.25 credits): participation in examining committees; organization of scientific events (eg: scientific committee member) and participation in collegiate organizations.