

Rules and Regulations for Presentation of Thesis or Dissertation - (Movement Sciences)

The final presentation must be delivered in the Postgraduate Program Office:

1- Six copies of the Masters thesis and nine copies of the Doctoral dissertation according to the standardized orientation below.

2- Letter from the advisor with suggestions of names (eight for the Masters and ten for the Doctorate) to compose the Examining Committee, containing: Name, address and area of research of each member.

Masters:

Members: Advisor and at least one external member of UNESP.

Substitutes: at least one external member of UNESP.

Doctors:

Members: Advisor and at least two external members of UNESP.

Substitutes: at least two external members of UNESP.

3 - Definitive Version:

- Instructions for self-archiving of theses and dissertations

- Tutorial for self-archiving of theses and dissertations

- Ordering for self-archiving of theses and dissertations

- Title page

- All the thesis and dissertation samples delivered must have the title page following the standardized template.